Westerner Park Proudly Announces “Rock the Nation” — A Celebration of Canadian Music.

December 12, 2016 | Red Deer, AB — Westerner Park is excited to announce that “Rock the Nation” will be making a stop in Red Deer, Alberta.

Presented by Annerin Productions, “Rock the Nation” will be on stage in the ENMAX Centrium at Westerner Park, Red Deer, AB on March 23, 2017 at 7:30 pm.

Touring across Canada, in honor of Canada’s 150th birthday, “Rock the Nation” is a celebration of over thirty years of Canadian music. Songs that inspired us, songs that moved us, comforted us and challenged us. It’s the soundtrack to a generation and a musical reflection of a country that was coming of age. Experience it all live on stage, as we take a journey from the 60’s to the 80’s featuring the songs and music made famous by Paul Anka, The Guess Who, Neil Young, Joni Mitchell, April Wine, Loverboy, K.D Lang, Tom Cochrane and so many more. Come see for yourself how our nation, our artists, and our music were influenced by the changing world.

Tickets will go on sale Friday, December 16, 2017 and can be purchased at ticketmaster.ca or charged by phone by calling 1-855-985-5000.

Single tickets will be sold at three price levels of $49.50, $59.50, and $69.50 (including GST, not including FMF and service charges). Discounts are available for seniors, students, or groups of 15 or more.
